M. Rochefori-Personal Recollections of His Early Life. In giving a slight sketch of the life o this remarkable man, whose fame for near a decade has been ringing throughout Europe, I do not purpose canvassing his political character, but simply to show from personal knowledge that he is by no means the "mountebank," the "knave" or the "fool" that some American journals represent him; but, on the contrary, that he is a struggling self-made man, with talents, conrage and energy of no ordinary type. Neither is he the "commoner sprung from an obscure family," which a New York paper falsely asserts, for he is the descendant of one of the cliest and most aristocratic Tamilies of France, and is required. It is probable, however, that will visit Mount Vernon to-morrow, has been tendered a collation at the Arlington and title by right, is Henri.

Taxpayers' Convention.

Charleston, S. C., May D.

A taxpayers' convention met in Columbia this forencon. Delegations of this most prominent and influential citizens of most prominent and influential citizens were present from every section of the State. Hon. W. D. Porter was chosen president, and on taking the chair said our public credit must be unquestioned and unquested. We man not repudiation, but whatever new obligations are hereafter incorred, financiers may make them at their poril. A committee of eleven was then appointed to confer with Gov. Scott. It is understood he speaks to-morrow. The tone of conversation was calm and moderate, and all parties anticipate good effects from the convention.
